

Our Policy for Protecting Your Privacy when you visit us on the Web

District 20 of the Retired Teachers of Ontario (RTO/ERO) has created this privacy statement in order to demonstrate the organization's firm commitment to privacy. The following discloses the information gathering and dissemination practices for District 20 RTO/ERO only.

Tracking:

There is a website counter on the home page. The sole purpose of the counter is to collect the number of visits received each week. We do not attempt to identify the location or identity of site visitors through this counting device.

Personal information:

We do not collect any personal information from our visitors.

Cookies:

We do not use cookies to track any visitor information.

Personal User Information:

We do not collect any information about website visitors. Visitors are free to visit the website, and navigate all its pages, without any user registration.

Communications:

Email links, telephone numbers, and other personal data found on this site are placed there for the convenience of visitors, and their sole purpose is to provide a source of further information about a particular part of the District program. No email address or other personal information about an RTO/ERO member or visitor to this site will appear on the site without the expressed permission of the person so identified. No information about persons who correspond with RTO/ERO members will be collected from the site, or used for any purpose by the recipient of the correspondence other than to further information dissemination.

Links:

The website contains links to other sites. We are not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of such Web sites.